

Reading Discovery

A Book Hunt Activity ○○○

TEACHER'S INFO SHEET

WHAT'S THE ACTIVITY?

The Reading Discovery activity encourages students to explore books and reflect on their observations. They record their findings and respond to various reading clues or challenges, which can be done in small groups or in a reading resource setting.

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

- check list
- Favourite discovery
- Reflection question

HOW?

- Choose a book.
- Read each prompt.
- Look through the book.
- Write down your discoveries.

WHY EDUCATORS & STUDENTS LOVE IT

- No Prep!
- Attention to detail
- Thinking critically
- Self checking
- Exploring new books & interactive learning
- Suitable for:
 - small group work
 - Independent learning
 - Young learners

CLICK TO READ 1ST . . .

ARTICLE HERE: #① Why Some Children Say,
"I Don't Like Reading"

READING LANTERN BLOG

Name/date: _____

① What to do: Set off to find a new book to read!

② Check List: Search the Book Shelf

✓ Tick all that apply: I found a book that ...

☐ has animals
/pets

☐ has dragons /unicorns/princess/ wizards

☐ is about space

☐ I can share with a friend.

☐ is scary

☐ is funny

☐ is about
nature/seasons

☐ is an adventure.

☐ Did you find a different book not listed?
Write or draw it here

③ Let's Talk about it!

1. Which book did you like?
2. Which book you didn't like?
3. Which book do you want to read next?

Thank You!

AND CREDITS

At READING LANTERN, we thank you for downloading this resource! I hope this Reading Discovery activity is both helpful and meaningful for your learners.

• • • •

If you found this resource helpful, we'd be grateful if you:

- Leave a review on my website.
- Follow for more updates and new resources.
- Share the website link with colleagues who may benefit.

• • • •

Your feedback helps us grow and create even better resources for you.

• • • •

If there's a resource you'd like to see on my website? Let us know in the comments. We'll do our best to create activities that suit your learning environment and students' needs.

